

A KEVIN D. ALEXANDER

Vice president and co-founder // Alexander Enterprises Construction and Development // buildnaz.com

Alexander is a meticulous, “hands-on” master builder. He grew up helping his father and grandfather on large municipal projects, residential homes and fire restorations in Southern California. Alexander is known for his extraordinary attention-to-detail, resourcefulness, efficiency and immaculate custom home sites. Alexander’s ability to creatively orchestrate innovative solutions to difficult and complex site and design issues has earned him an enviable reputation in the custom home building industry.

Source of pride: “When times are good, many people jump into building and when times are bad, there’s a lot of collateral damage. I think I’m most proud of the fact that we’ve been able to stay in the building game through some very difficult recessions for over 32 years.”

B MATTHEW H. CODY

President // Cachet Homes // cachethomes.net

With over 30 years of building luxury and custom-quality homes, townhomes, and condominiums, Cachet Homes is recognized for its sophisticated style, fine craftsmanship and creating authentic lifestyle and living experiences. Cachet Homes has been crafting classically styled, visually distinctive luxury homes built to reflect the company’s deep commitment to superior quality, distinctive design, exceptional care, and integrity. Cachet Homes’ communities are located in some of the most desirable and natural settings in Arizona.

Source of pride: “Creating a legacy for Cachet Homes that is reflective of who we are collectively as individuals and as a company. Everyone striving to do the best job they can every day, doing what’s right, and being fair and kind in all we do.”

c DAVID M. KITNICK

President and founder // Rosewood Homes // rosewoodhomes.com

Kitnick has been building new homes and neighborhoods for 38-years, including founding luxury homebuilder Rosewood Homes. Prior to starting Rosewood, Kitnick was a region president for Lennar. Earlier in his career, he founded the Arizona Division of Greystone Homes, then the Arizona Division of Ashton Woods — leading Rosewood, Ashton Woods and Greystone to “Builder of the Year” or “Small Volume Builder of the Year” Awards presented by the Homebuilders Association of Central Arizona.

Source of pride: “Being a five-time recipient of the Eliant Homebuyers Choice Award for providing the ‘Best Overall Purchase & Ownership Experience’ in America as determined by actual homeowners evaluating their home, their builder and their overall experience.”